

Improvaganza

Saturday May 28, 1:30-4:30 p.m. (3 hr)

Instructor: Adam Windsor

Adam graduated from S.H.D.H.S in 2013 and continued his education in Theatre Arts at Fanshawe College. He graduated there in April 2015 with honours. He has had the opportunity to be a part of a number of shows including “Our Town” by Thornton Wilder, “Nothing Sacred” by George F. Walker and “Twelfth Night” by William Shakespeare. He is looking forward to a long and prosperous career and is thankful for the support of all his family and friends over the years.

<https://adamwindsor.workbooklive.com>

In this workshop, those participating will learn the basic fundamentals of Improv and how to utilize these fundamentals in a play or film setting. Participants will learn the concept of “Yes and”, “Making your partner look good” as well as many others. This workshop is to aid those who hope to have a future in acting grasp the basics in a new light and for those passionate about the craft to expand their arsenal for the acting world.

Please wear clothes you are comfortable moving around in.

Kit Fee: none

Skill Level: introductory