Ruth Anne Merner is a visual artist living in Dashwood, Ontario. She has a degree in Fine Art from the University of Toronto and enjoyed a career in teaching art with the Thames Valley District School Board. As a teacher she developed many skills but especially likes to work with three dimensional media. She loves the creative atmosphere and the sharing that creates exciting inspiration in class situations. Currently, Ruth Anne's work is focusing on clay, mixed media and raku but printmaking has always been a favorite medium.

Something Fishy Monoprint

Learn how to create a monoprint (one of a kind) in the relief printmaking process similar to lino prints and woodblock prints but this time use a real fish! Discover some basics on printmaking as an exciting original art form. Take home your own matted print to hang on your wall. This is a great way to preserve and celebrate special family fishing events too.
